Dance Tonight—

Auditorium rink, McElroy's orchestra. Welcome everybody.

Registration Slow—

City registration is only about half of what it was last year, but as the books do not close for some time the vote cast in December may be normal.

Hurt At Wilsonville—

Mr. Burt, an employee of a steam plant at Wilsonville, was severely cut on the head yesterday at that place, and was brought to Salem for medical attendance.

Must File Petitions—

Next Thursday is the last day for filing petitions of candidacy for the city election and a rush is expected at the city recorder's office next week.

Jones To Take Charge—

The Republican headquarters in this city will be taken charge of by County Chairman Jones next Monday.

W. O. W. Dance—

Oct. 23, at hall, corner State and Liberty streets. Good music to be furnished.

Mayor Campaigning—

Mayor Rodgers will be absent from the meeting of the council next Monday night as he will be on a campaign trip. The council will be called upon to elect an acting mayor.

Replacing Sewer—

The sewer at Twelfth and State streets, which has been the cause of considerable trouble between the city authorities and the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, is being replaced by the company's construction gang.

Dance Tonight—

Auditorium rink, McElroy's orchestra. Welcome everybody.

Dance Oct. 23—

At W. of W. hall at corner State and Liberty streets.

Watt Home Burned—

The home of Miss Elizabeth Watt on South Commercial street burned to the ground yesterday evening destroying the entire building and furnishings. The cause of the conflagration is not known, as Miss Watt left the house about a half hour before the fire was discovered and no one was around the premises so far as known at the time, but her. Several of the neighbors attempted to extinguish the flames, but their efforts were of no avail as the house was too far gone.

Come Out—

Next Friday evening and enjoy yourself at the W. O. W. dance.

Bryan Lithographs—

Gets Wages—

The jury in the case of Henry Lee vs. W. Wright decided in Lee's favor this afternoon. Lee was an employee of the Barnum & Bailey circus, indirectly through Wright, who conducted one of the side shows. The suit was brought to secure back pay.

Discourage—

This paper gave the wrong impression in a news item the other day when it said that visitors should not be welcomed at the State Insane asylum. Supt. Steiner wishes to correct this impression, as he wishes everybody to feel perfectly welcome to visit the asylum, as they have always done. He did say in an address at Portland that he wished to discourage visiting the patients in the wards, or going through the wards from mere idle curiosity. He thinks there has been too much of that but the grounds and places of interest at that institution will always be open to the inspection of the public.
